Where Dragons Rule

Dragonforce

Full the moon and midnight sky
Through the dark they ride
Warriors of forever will sacrifice the nightOne for all and all for one
The future time has come
Faces filled with torment
Your heart beats like a drumNever will you look back again
You'll fight on 'til the end
Together we will live on Forever more...In this land we have defended from all things dark and cruel
Now we are defenseless in a land where dragons ruleIn this land we have defended from all things dark and cruel
Now we are defenseless in a land where dragons ruleFlash of steel in the mid-day sun
The battle has begun
Blood spills all around us but still we carry onNo mercy we will show to them
The white flag shall be raised
We'll fight for our freedom
Ride towards this evil placeWe all stand until the end allegiance to this gameIn this land we've defended from all things dark and cruel
Now we're defenseless in a land where dragons ruleIn this land we've defended from all things dark and cruel
Now we're defenseless in a land where dragons ruleSun set in the western sky
The battle's almost done
The victory will be glorious
Our enemies are goneWe all stand until the end allegiance to this gameIn this land we've defended from all things dark and cruel
Now we're defenseless in a land where dragons ruleIn this land we've defended from all things dark and cruel
Now we're defenseless in a land where dragons rule[Solo]In this land we've defended from all things dark and cruel
Now we're defenseless in a land where dragons rule [3x]
