Can't Live Without You

Fit For Rivals

Wait, don't leave me here alone, again.
I can't make you believe, you're all I ever loved, but I guess that's not enough.
I, I believe in this, let's fight for us, can't end this way.
Can't live without you.
I'm begging on my knees.
If there's anyway I could prove to you then maybe you'll believe.
I've fallen for you, there's nothing left to say.
You're my center when my heart starts to slip away.
Stay, let's end this tonight, amend.
This, just nothing seems so right, you and I.
I've fallen, fallen for you yeah, I've fallen, what can I do?
