

Attitude

John Butler Trio

Hey man, why you always give me attitude?
What I, what I ever done to you?
And if you got a bone to pick
Then step outside, step outside, talk about it
But I talk with words, man, I don't talk with my fists
I'm sick of all this aggression, hell you know I've had enough of it
But I don't mean, no I don't mean to offend you
So tell me if I have, tell me if I have
Don't give me attitude, don't you give me attitude
Hey man why you always laughin' at me?
What's so, what's so funny?
'Cause take a look in the mirror, say now what do you see?
Oh no, you are just, you are just like me
And I'm easy goin', I listen to what you gotta say
And if I was wrong, if I was wrong, I'd say sorry
'Cause I don't mean, no I don't mean to offend you
I got my own demons, don't need bad karma too
Because truth is the only way so express what you're feelin'
And say what you've gotta say without blamin', without blamin'
Hey man, why you always give me attitude?
What I, what I ever done to you?
And if you got a bone to pick, c'mon, c'mon
Then step outside, step outside, talk about it
I'm easy goin', I listen to what you gotta say
And if I was wrong, if I was wrong, I'd say sorry
'Cause I don't mean to offend you
So tell me if I have, tell me if I have
Don't give me attitude, don't you give me attitude
Don't you give me attitude, don't you give me attitude
Don't you give me attitude, don't you give me attitude
Don't you give me attitude, don't you give me attitude
Don't you give me attitude
