

Somebody Give Me a Reason

Jack Miz

Heres a story bout a boy who came for nothing what he found is that he needed to find something that I cannot explain. Give it time and you will find what you are here for ask the questions get the answers you have longed for but you will still be lost. All this thinking is too much for me and if I dwell then it will lead me to insanity will someone help me understand? Whats the point if youre confused?
Whats the difference if Ill never be like you? Somebody gimmie a reason to smile again
Somebody tell me its all okay and get over it
Thats what I, all I need from you
( You say dont stress but its all I do )
And its all that I need from you. Oh As if its not enough for me the second I start changing is the second you start pushing me you think its simple but I am oh, only human only 18 just trying to grow up so there is no sense in pushing me, in time I will be who I am Whats the point if youre confused?
Whats the difference if Ill never be like you? Somebody gimmie a reason to smile again
Somebody tell me its all okay and get over it
Thats what I, all I need from you
( You say dont stress but its all I do )
And its all that I need from you. Oh Oh sing with me oh Oh sing with me oh Somebody gimmie a reason to smile again
Somebody tell me its all okay and get over it
Thats what I, all I need from you
( You say dont stress but its all I do )
And its all that I need from you. Oh
