

I Will Run After You

Frank Black & The Catholics

If you went away, called it all a day, said that it was through
 'Cause a new man or an old friend or a guru
 'Cause you got a bit tired of me now, that I could believe
 Yeah but if you doIf you leave, if you leave
If you leave, if you leaveWouldn't even cry, wouldn't even try, wouldn't even stew
 Wouldn't look for another love, no, listen if you leave
 Tell you what I doIf you leave, if you leave
 If you leave, if you leave
 If you leave, if you leave
 If you leave
