Let Him Go

Audio Push

You don't need to prolong, you can let him know
You ain't gotta hold on, you can let him go
I know you probably need a soldier yo
You can tell him that Bobby V told you so
You don't need to prolong, you can let him know
You ain't gotta hold on, you can let him go
If you know so, get with a soldier yo
And you can tell him that Loso told you so
I see the temperature?s rising, yeah
It's too hot for you to stay in there
What he's puttin? you through
It doesn't fit you and it's hurtin? me deeply
You?re from the best side of town
Grew up with both parents around
But your man don?t know love
So he can't show love, I, you need it
In the beginning everything was fine
Spending money on you all the time
It?s never too late, I'll help you escape and fly
Baby, just let him go
There's no tears left to cry, don't cry no more
Baby, just let him go, baby, let go, and baby, let go
Baby, just him go
Ain't nothin? wrong with moving on to get what you want
Baby, just let him go, baby, let go and baby, let go
Baby, just let him go
You?re feeling all alone and scared
?Cuz you let him get in your head
He's filling your mind with all those lies
Like without him you?re nothin?
Baby, don?t believe a word
He's gonna get what he deserves
But in the meantime just hop in my ride
I'll show you what love is
Baby, don?t pack nothing
Leave the memories and all that pain
It?s never too late, baby, escape tonight
Baby, just let him go

Baby, just let him go, baby, let go, and baby, let go
Baby, just him go
Ain't nothin? wrong with moving on to get what you want
Baby, just let him go, baby, let go and baby, let go
Baby, just let him go
They say when you had enough of ?em you let him go
Baby, I ain?t into cuffin? 'em, I let ?em know
Sometimes you gotta shuffle ?em and spread ?em slow
And just when you think you bluffin? ?em, you let ?em show
I keep the poker face, ain?t nothin? funny son
Soon as the joker chase that's when the money run
Like 21, I'm a winner who can
Make you fold that, get a new hand
New man and a new deck of cards
You wanna play with squares, buy a new checkerboard
Dude check a broad if she too extra, God
I throw ?em out, no problem to take ?em broads
Let ?em go, I can be with two naked broads
In a mansion have them two neckin? hard
So baby, lose your grip, you could use a trip away
Anyway, Fabolous vaycay
I know you don?t need no help
But you could do better by yourself
You're headed down a dead end road
Don?t let him kill your soul
My love is here for you
Even if you ain?t with me, it?s cool
Just promise you'll run away
What I?m tryna to say
Baby, just let him go
Baby, just let him go, baby, let go, and baby, let go
Baby, just him go
Ain't nothin? wrong with moving on to get what you want
Baby, just let him go, baby, let go and baby, let go
Baby, just let him go
All you gotta do is just let him go
All you gotta do is just let him go
All you gotta do is just let him go
All you gotta do is just let him go
All you gotta do is just let him go
All you gotta do is just let him go
All you gotta do is just let him go
All you gotta do is just let him go
