

Under Your Skin

Dan Sultan

You keep on pullin' me
Pullin' me in Under your pretty perfect skin
Cold sweat comes over
My head starts to shake
There's only so long that a grown man can wait
Boys will come and boys will go
But you need a man to take it slow I put on my favourite, my favourite gloves,
Don't leave no fingerprints
On the one I love
Chock your door open
Won't you try to escape
Baby I told you what your look can create The trickle of blood runnin' down my spine
I make my exit at the last firelight
Baby I know, it's a mortal sin But you Keep on pullin' me under your skin
You keep on pullin' me under your skin x3 Oh why The trickle of cold blood runnin' down my spine
I make my exit at the last firelight
Baby i know it's a mortal sin But you keep on pullin' me under your skin
