

Hero of Our Time

NateWantsToBattle

A new world awaits for you
Through night and day
It's yours to save
Check mountains, land and sea
From Kokiri to your destiny

In you I know we'll find!
The Hero of Our Time!
An Evil King has come to reign!

I'll let you know
You'll be leaving it behind
look deep inside
Soon enough you'll find
The courage to win
Now you best be on your way
For you have a demon to slay!

More trials await for you
It's all at stake to test your strength
7 years you will sleep
Awake and defeat
The man with the evil eyes!

In you I know we'll find!
The Hero of Our Time!
An Evil King has come to reign!

I'll let you know
You'll be leaving it behind
look deep inside
Soon enough you'll find
The courage to win
Now you best be on your way
For you have a demon to slay!

Determined again
Your timeline will mend
The balance that turns in the end

Soon we'll eventually see

I'll let you know
You'll be leaving it behind
 look deep inside
Soon enough you'll find
 The courage to win
Now you best be on your way
For you have a demon to slay!
