Disintegration

Monarchy

And then, when there is just one woman left standing in the room
Then she will be yours
DisintegrationYou, you and me
Hold our breath and count to three
I want so much to give you my everythingDisintegration, suffocation
My life is taken, my annihilationTake my love for you
Take my love for you
Take my love for you
Take my love for youThere's a fear inside of me
Open up and take it slowly
Less it's all my reality
Imma be, Imma hard my heartbeatI'm, I'm so afraid giving to you endlessly
Look for for your touch
Never have I died so much muchDisintegration, suffocation
My life is taken, my annihilationTake my love for you
Take my love for you
Take my love for you
Take my love for youThere's a fear inside of me
Open up and take it slowly
Less it's all my reality
Imma be, Imma hard my heartbeatTake my love for you
Take my love for you
Take my love for you
Take my love for youTake my love for you
Take my love for you
Take my love for you
Take my love for youTake my love for you
Take my love for you
Take my love for you
Take my love for youDisintegration, suffocation
My life is taken, my annihilation
