

Nothing Stopping Me (Jason Bouse Hardcore Edit)

Vicetone

Just when I realized
You been shutting me out
I start to reach for the sky
And nothing's falling down Everybody knows how the story goes
But fairytales have been lying to me
Every time I try you just run and hide
Now I'm finally feeling free Tell me can you see me now
While I rise above the crowd
Who would of known I'd make it out
Your broken world, no You thought you tore me down
I'm not giving up
Now you know
So tell me can see me now
Rising above and nothing stopping me now Nothing stopping me now
Nothing stopping me now Now I know my feet they won't fail me now
So thanks for showing me
What I am about Everybody knows how the story goes
But fairytales have been lying to me
Every time I try you just run and hide
Now I'm finally feeling free Tell me can you see me now
While I rise above the crowd
Who would of known I'd make it out
Your broken world, no You thought you tore me down
I'm not giving up
Now you know
So tell me can see me now
Rising above and nothing stopping me now So can you see me, now
So can you see me, now Tell me can you see me now
While I rise above the crowd
Who would of known I'd make it out
Your broken world, no You thought you tore me down
I'm not giving up
Now you know
So tell me can see me now
Rising above and nothing stopping me now
