

Camouflage

Mariah Carey

I remember so many nights in the bed alone
Wonderin' could I muster the strength to exist in the bitter cold (cold)
But you showed up once in a while, I guess that's alright
'Cause I told my heart that you needed time for yourself, it's fine I camouflage my tears and you wear your disguise
And I then go
to know that you still love me (I need to know, say that you do)
To know if you still love me (I need to know, say that you do) Wear it sometimes when I try to discern our reality
Wish that I just could be somebody else if you talk to me
Kept praying inside let him love me for who I am
Please my Lord (please my Lord)
But you where just somewhere the sun couldn't reach
Couldn't understand I camouflage my tears and you wear your disguise
And I then go
to know that you still love me (I need to know, say that you do)
To know if you still love me (I need to know, say that you do) Didn't we swear we give each other everything
Didn't I give you all of me
Oh oh oh
No night or day goes by
No no no
When I, don't wonder inside
If you feel the way you used to feel I camouflage my tears
And you wear your disguise
And ran, and ran, I flow (I need to know, say that you do)
And that's all I really wanted
that's all I really wanted
(Oh say it)
that's all I really wanted
Tell me that you love me
I need to know (I need to know)
Say that you love me (I camouflage)
I cry and cry, you laugh and laugh at the question
But I need to know
I need to know
I need to know
