

Dandelion

LOLO

Rain is falling, bite another nail away
I'm taking bets on how long I'm gonna last down here
Pockets filling up with lottery tickets
I'm just a zombie picking dandelions
And letting them fly And I don't have anyone to talk to today
I don't have a reason to wash my hair
I keep on thinking I made a mistake
There's a Mason-Dixon line in the life I made
Call me selfish, sold my life to change the pace
Take a number, got enough of my own complaints
Starting over's more fun when you watch someone else do it
Well I just want a drink right now I don't have anyone to talk to today
I don't have a reason to wash my hair
I keep on thinking I made a mistake
There's a Mason-Dixon line in the life I made Take a number
(I think I made a mistake)
I'm a zombie
Well I don't have anyone to talk to today
I don't have a reason to wash my hair
I keep on thinking I've made a mistake
There's a Mason-Dixon line in the life I made
In the life I made
