Emotional

Casely

Damn, somebody tell me why the first girl I see
When I walk up in the club is her
Nigga you told me that you was gon' make sure
I wasn't gon' see this girl
But not tonight, I wanted to give it time, I wanted her off my mind
Now it's too late, to leaveDamn, I wonder who that is she talkin' to
He put his drink down now he's makin' a move
Wonder where they movin' to
Just like a fool I'm watchin' her
Trynna make my eyes deter
But I can't stop watchin', I'm watchin'
See I can't stop watchin', I'm watchin'Now the only thing I feel inside of my chest
Is all this regret, I never shoulda let you go
Why'd I let you go?
This situation's under my skin, there a war going on within'This is how I feel, every time I'm 'round you
I just lose control, when I'm in the same room
I get so, I'm so
Emotional, emotional, emotionalThis is how I feel, every time I'm 'round you
I just lose control, when I'm in the same room
I get so, I'm so
Emotional, emotional, emotionalSo what do you think?
Should I roll up like I do it on dubs
Show her what it is make her miss my love?
Yeah, reminisce on us
Look at me stressin', so caught up
Learnin' my lesson, I realize
But now it's lookin' like its too lateCuz he just wrapped his hands around that slim waist, my waist
Please don't tell me she's dancin' the same way she danced with me
Man that can never be
That's what she said to me
And that's why its so hard to believeNow the only thing I feel inside of my chest
Is all this regret man I never should've let you go
Why'd I let you go?
This situation's under my skin
There's a war going on within'This is how I feel, every time I'm 'round you
I just lose control, when I'm in the same room
I get so, I'm so
Emotional, emotional, emotional
EmotionalThis is how I feel, every time I'm 'round you

I just lose control, when I'm in the same room
I get so, I'm so
Emotional, emotional, emotionalHey girl, I didn't see you standing there its been a long time
It's feelin' really good to see your smile
Every once in a while
Thinkin' of you and me
Life is good and freeYeah, wait! Baby I'm frontin' honestly I made a big mistake
I'm stugglin' with reality it hurts more every day
I've been blaming you for makin' me feel this way
And now I'm crushed without your loveThis is how I feel, hey, every time I'm 'round you
I just lose control, when I'm in the same room
I get so, I'm so
Emotional, emotional, emotionalThis is how I feel, every time I'm 'round you
I just lose control, when I'm in the same room
I get so, I'm so
Emotional, emotional, emotional
