Anger

Vindicator

Come, calm
Come, calm my anger
Come, calm
Come, calm my angerOur love is like a perfect sky
Deep blue and the sun is shining
But it seems that sometimes
There have to be some cloudsAnd suddenly I feel this destructive anger
Deep inside
And suddenly I feel this destructive anger
Is about to risePlease come and calm this anger
You're the one to calm this anger
And if you can't calm this anger
It'll surely devour me, this angerDark clouds, it's in a perfect sky
And the air is getting colder
The rain starts to fall and
We feel stormy wind in our facesAnd suddenly I feel this destructive anger
Deep inside
And suddenly I feel this destructive anger
Is about to risePlease come and calm this anger
You're the one to calm this anger
And if you can't calm this anger
It'll surely devour me, this angerGlaring lightnings break the sky
And the thunder is rumbling loudly
The elements have turned mad
It seems that it all will break downPlease come and calm this anger
You're the one to calm this anger
And if you can't calm this anger
It'll surely devour me, this anger
