

Ice Cream Summer

Hanoi Rocks

Rosalita, now our summer's gone
And you've left me all alone
You know I never expected, no, I never suspected
That you came to me to steal my love away, woah woah, yeah, bitch You said I've always been a dreamer
'Cause dreaming is all I've ever done
Just like our summer, I thought it would last forever
But as the autumn came, you had gone away, yeah, yeah, yeah All the promises you broke
Meant more to me than gold
Now I'm all alone in the heartbreak zone
And the winter will be cold without you Rosalita, now our summer's gone
And you've left me all alone
You know I never expected, no, I never suspected
That you came to me to steal my love away, oh Rosalita, oh yeah You said, I was a born loser
'Cause losing is all I've ever done
Like when I lost you, it proved that all you said was true
And now without you, I feel I'm being used All the promises you broke
Meant more to me than gold
And now I'm all alone in the heartbreak zone
And the winter will be cold without you, my Rosalita
My Rosalita, it's forgotten now it's gone All there is left is a photograph
You smile and the ice cream's meltin' down your pants
And I keep living on, you're in the past, it's been so long
Since the ice cream summer, it's forgotten now it's gone Rosalita, now our summer's gone
And you've left me all alone
You know I never expected, no, I never suspected
That you came to me to steal my love away Now you're just a memory, don't mean nothing more to me
A photo among others of my old friends and my lovers
And the winter is gone, a new summer's coming on
A new summer's coming on for you as well somewhere, Rosalita
