Live Life

Capture the Crown

I've told you
To live your own life.Do it standing on this darken ocean,
We are in this alone!
In this moment, we're untouchable.
Truth be told, this is our home.Swimming through life,
We still circled the shadows, sifting through the water,
Feed on young and leave the old you can't be told
To give it up, to give it up, to give it up, to give it up!
You dumb fucks.If you want to be the anchor to me, then I'll gladly search far!
For a bag of rocks to tie to your feet, drown you like the rat you are.
If the world is your oyster, then I'll do what I can, oh!
To drain the fucking ocean, live you high and dry on the sand.Without a doubt, we're singled out.
They, they never said this would come easy,
Take me hand and just believe me,
Live your own life.Yeah!Is it a crime to say,
All I ever needed was something to hold onto?
Why was it frowned upon,
When I fond that something to get me through?
This hate was grafted by the trends you upkeep (trends you upkeep)
Well, go ba-ba-ba-back to the farm, you fucking sheep!If you want to be the anchor to me, then I'll gladly search far!
For a bag of rocks to tie to your feet, drown you like the rat you are.
If the world is your oyster, then I'll do what I can!
To drain the fucking ocean, live you high and dry on the sand.Without a doubt, we're singled out.
They, they never said this would come easy,
Take me hand and just believe me,
Live your own life.We are one, but we are many.
We are one, but we are many.
We are one, but we are many.
We are equal, and for tonight, right here, right now,
We are all royalty."Live your own life."
I say it every fucking night!
"Live your own life."
I say it every single fucking night!
