Not Afraid Anymore

Minister Theory

I feel Your lightning
Waking me up from the sleep of my timid soul
I've been in hiding
From all Your plans, Your commands that told me to go
And I've spent all my life
Keeping my head down
But I'm lifting up my eyes
I raise my flag up high, my flag up high
I'm not afraid anymore
'Cause I am running with Your fire, Lord
I'm picking up my sword
You train my hands and my fingers for war
I'm not afraid anymore
I hear the trumpet
Ringing out in these streets where kingdoms collide
So I'm responding
This is a fight for love, this is death or life
And when my knees are weak
I know Your hands are strong
And they are holding me

I'll never be alone, never be alone
I'm not afraid anymore
'Cause I am running with Your fire, Lord
I'm picking up my sword
You train my hands and my fingers for war
I'm not afraid anymore, I'm not afraid anymore, hey
You're chasing my fears away
There's no reason to be afraid
Your love is here, chasing my fears away
I'm not afraid anymore
'Cause I am running with Your fire, Lord
I'm picking up my sword
You train my hands and my fingers for war
I'm not afraid anymore
'Cause I am running with Your fire, Lord
I'm picking up my sword
You train my hands and my fingers for war
I'm not afraid anymore, I'm not afraid anymore

I'm not afraid anymore, hey
Your love is here and it's chasing my fears away
