

Holdin' It Down for the Underground

A Day to Remember

Been through a lot in the last year
It's like everything I love is slipping away
And every time I come home
Some part of me it isn't there
I gotta get it together
I need to do things for myself
I've given everything
Plus you, you take more from me
I need some room to breathe

Come on, come on
You know this isn't what we planned on
(You know this isn't what we planned)
Come on, come on
Tell me we'll be okay
(We'll be okay!)
Lets go back, lets go back
To a time where I still felt I had family

This isn't what I remember
Everyone's looking out for just themselves
And need it be I'd be happy to leave
Just be warned, I'll be taking most of you with me
I see straight through
That smile straight through
That painted face
Don't think that I can't tell
Which one of you is against me

Come on, come on
You know this isn't what we planned on
(You know this isn't what we planned)
Come on, come on
Tell me we'll be okay
(We'll be okay!)
Lets go back, lets go back
To a time where I still felt I had family

I had the greatest faith in fools,

I turned my back and out came the wolves

PAY ATTENTION!

Come on, come on
You know this isn't what we planned on
(You know this isn't what we planned)

Come on, come on
Tell me we'll be okay
(We'll be okay!)

Lets go back, lets go back
To a time where I still felt I had family

Been through a lot in the last year
It's like everything I love is slipping away

---

Lyrics submitted by Carissa.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>