Chinese Dogs

Dirty Pretty Things

Well, it took you seven years to learn my name
And I know it's all the drugs and booze that I took, lame
Oh, sh-sh-shame
(What a shame)But it took me seven years to forget your name
All the drugs, all the fools and all the
The Hanging around, I fell out of the game
What a shameWhat would it take for me to be your man?
What would it take for me to be your man?
What would it take to make you understand?
What would it take to make you understand?Well, all the filthy old Mary's and their Chinese dogs
So, is a no go, oh, if you know what I know, what?
I know what you know, oh dearA million common people want to tear your head off
Just to show your bones to the night
Cause the night is when I'm satisfied
Woah, oh, ohWhat would it take for me to be your man?
What would it take for me to be your man?
What would it take to make you understand?
What would it take to make you understand?
It can't be us cause the worlds gone coldAnd if the hat don't fit ya
Yeah? It don't fucking fit yaWhat would it take for me to be your man?
What would it take for me to be your man?
Well, what would it take to make you understand?
What would it take to make you understand?
It can't be us cause the worlds gone cold

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/