

Beyond the Sunset

George Younce

Should you go first and I remain
To walk the road alone
Iâ€™ll live in memoryâ€™s garden, dear
With happy days weâ€™ve known
In Spring, Iâ€™ll watch for roses red
When faith the lilacs bloom
And in early Fall
When brown leaves call
Iâ€™ll catch a glimpse of you

Should you go first and I remain
To finish with the scroll
No lengthen shadows
Shall creep in
To make this life seem droll
Weâ€™ve known so much of happiness
And weâ€™ve had our cup of joy
But memory is one gift of God
That death cannot destroy

Should you go first and I remain
For battles to be fought
Each thing youâ€™ve touched
Along the way
Will be a hallowed spot
Iâ€™ll hear your voice
Iâ€™ll see your smile
And though blindly I may grope
The memory of your helping hand
Will buoy me on with hope

Should you go first and I remain
One thing Iâ€™ll have you do
Walk slowly down that long, long path
For soon Iâ€™ll follow you
And I want to know each step you take
That I may walk the same
For some day, some day
Down that lonely road

Youâ€™ll hear me call your name
