One with the Pain

Outtrigger

you've gotta trust me and I know you're scared for my aggress you know my every move and all imaginations I possess you know the dirty things inside of my chestyou know my lust for wine aint nothing more than better sweat that's dripping down your spine you close your eyes as I caress i'll rub it in, gentle skin, makes me take it easy, take it easyI'll caress your fingertips pinching every inch of you with trembling excess
can't convince myself that this is wrong it'll lead to a mess
as my mind goes in the settling for my biggest regretStay, stay for the night don't run away just take a deep breath just let it all wash out in the rain only we'd known how to face what we've grown leaving the history in shame hope you would stay Let come what mayshe's far from being unique inside i feel what's weak she opens up to speak I search her hand against my cheek she's begging; "please don't speak, I love you but I'm far to weak to face what we've begin "It's a sister sin"I'll caress your fingertips

hope you would stayGuess I got something Still I got noting Help me get back what i lost lost, lostshe said don't take me for nothing I'm more than something still what were doing is wrongFor what it's worth she said this wouldn't work i belived in every word that you said to meStay, stay for the night don't run away
just take a deep breath
Let come what mayOne with the pain from the same blood we were made we'll leave it all unrevealed
