

Blood Brother

The Daredevil Christopher Wright

Come on baby
Come on home
I wish you were here
When I walked into the room As you might have guessed
Your sister's been kissed
Your father's been laid to rest in the cemetery
Cemetery
Cemetery
Cemetery
Everybody! Come on baby
Come on home
I wish you were here
When I walked into the room Oh I think everyone, everyone else... Oh, I'll be the friend you need
Sprinkling of blood that speaks a better word
I have heard it... Oh, I'll be the friend you need
Sprinkling of blood, sprinkling of blood
The book and the bread say...
I think I can say...
If I let on say...
I think I can.
I think I can.
I think I can.
