Baby Daddy

Lil' Scrappy

OH, and i gave you the cars, then i give you the moon, then i show you the stars.
put you in a big ass house, put money in your purse, put food in your mouth.and i was real as hell, and all you could give me was a taste of hell.
and i told you i cheated, and thats all it takes for you to tell me to beat it?dont be offended of anything
i might sayYEAH, then i give you a baby. and when i told you i love you, you drive me crazy.
treated you like a queen, so you wouldnt feel like the ugly lady.oh i gave you the world, and then you walk out my life cause i fucked another girl.
man we gotta get this thing tight, gotta get this thing right, cause it kinda sounds like..dont be offended
of anything
i might sayYEAH, then i take 3 or 4 days to spend time with you. (come on girl) came home off the road, shawty, even when i wasnt supposed to.
sure i gave her a lil' dick, but i gave all my love to you. (come on) no it aint about the money buts it funny when you get mad, shawty cause you never keep it true.dont be offended
of anything
i might sayof course you were there for me, when my mouth was hurt and a nigga couldnt talk.
i remember when you were prgnant, i was there when you couldnt even walk.no i dont give a fuck about them other hoes, as long as we can live life like gold.
yeah im looking at your pockets, tey lookin kinda swoll.

do that make you a hoe? (NO)dont be offended
of anything
i might sayOHH, you had drama with my mamma but i stayed with you ate it all up like a runna.
and when you find out shit you got mad and got the hell on, and skeeted on like a road runna. i hope you chill out cause you got my baby and to me shes the number one stunna.
you gotta cool that shit down, baby even if you dont wanna you gotta keep it true.dont be offended of the things i might say
