

You Make Me Want To Be A Man

Utada

I really want to tell you something
This is just the way I am
I really want to tell you something, but I can't
You make me want to be a man Arguments that have no meaning
This is just the way I am
You really want to tell me something, but you can't
You make me want to be a man The thunder and the rain called you and you came
We didn't need to say much to communicate
Now it's different; 99% is misinterpreted I really want to tell you something
This is just the way I am
I really want to tell you something, but I can't
You make me want to be a man Arguments that have no meaning
This is just the way I am
You really want to tell me something, but you can't
You make me want to be a man Every word you say finds a home in me
Nothing that anyone could ever say
Could hurt me like this
Baby please, don't light that cigarette
Don't light that cigarette I really want to tell you something
This is just the way I am
I really want to tell you something, but I can't
You make me want to be a man Arguments that have no meaning
This is just the way I am
You really want to tell me something, but you can't
You make me want to be a man I really want to tell you something
This is just the way I am
I really want to tell you something, but I can't
You make me want to be a man Arguments that have no meaning
This is just the way I am
You really want to tell me something, but you can't
You make me want to be a man
