

Lay Me Down

Tori Harris

I've made my home here in the valley
And my soul thirsts like this wasted desert land
Just a drop, a taste i'm longing for
I long for you I lay me down, my offering to you
I lay me down
Here I lay down this life, from out of death so love may come alive
I lay me down In the dark night of the valley
The clearest place to see the stars
And my refiner, purify this heart
I long for you I lay me down, my offering to you
I lay me down
Here I lay down this life, from out of death so love may come alive
I lay me down There on a hill, there all alone, crowned with thorns and bleeding love and with a voice from the cross he cries, from the cross he cries I lay me down, my offering to you
I lay me down
Here I lay down this life, from out of death so love may come alive
I lay me down
I lay me down
I lay me down
