

War (Prod. By B.Cox)

Jay Sean

I would march across the dessert, to defeat my enemy
And I would lie here in the trenches, with your picture next to me
And when I told you it's forever, then that's how it's gonna be Don't, won't let him, just take the place of me, noDoes he really know you like, I know you all the little things
Does he really love you like I love you, how can he compete
If he makes me fight for you, die for you, would he do the same
This has turned into way more than a gameNow it feels like, soldiers in a war, and none of us are backing down,
And I will show you victory is mine, before we leave this battle ground
'Cause he don't leave and he don't wanna go
And I know just how this battle goes
He don't wanna leave, and I don't wanna fight this kind of warYou know hes not the man you think he is, hes hiding all his flaws
So tell me whats the point in fighting, cause we'll all end up with scars
But girl if that's what I must go through, then I'm not prepared to lose
'Cause I've already bled so much for you, noDoes he really know you like, I know you all the little things
Does he really love you like I love you, how can he compete
If he makes me fight for you, I'd die for you, would he do the same Baby this has turned into way more than a gameBaby cause we're soldiers in a war, and none of us are backing down,
And I will show you victory is mine, before we leave this battle ground
'Cause he don't wanna leave and I don't wanna go
And I know just how this battle goes
He don't wanna leave, and I don't wanna fight this kind of warI'm getting kind of sick of this battle
Wish I can take it back to when I had you
I'm almost thinking that he can have you
Just let him have youIt's getting kind of hard to convince you
After all the shit that we've been through Why would you let all this happen?
You got a choice to make it stop,
It's already gone to far girlWe're soldiers in a war, and none of us are backing down,
And I will show you victory is mine, before we leave this battle ground'Cause he don't wanna leave and I don't wanna go
And I know just how this battle goes
He don't wanna leave, and I don't wanna fight this kind of war'Cause he don't wanna leave and I don't wanna go
And I know just how this battle goes
He don't wanna leave, and I don't wanna fight this kind of war
