

It Sucks

Skye Sweetnam

It's just a simple kiss and
No one has to ever know
What she doesn't know won't hurt her
As long as I don't let it show We'll keep it just between us
Bottled up inside
It's our little secret
I'll be playin' dumb and acting shy Goin' crazy for a week
(Crazy for a week)
Your girlfriend's gonna freak
(She's gonna freak)
Because I know I'd be freakin' too
'Cause that's the thing that girlfriends do It's so frustrating
You're not the type that I should be dating
No matter where I go, what I do
It sucks, 'cause I wanna be with you, you, you, you Found a lame excuse to call you
Just to hear your on the phone
Talked a million miles an hour
Pretending we were all alone And if only for a moment
It felt like you were really mine
But no one wants a cheater
Even if the boy is fine Goin' crazy for a week
(Crazy for a week)
Your girlfriend's gonna freak
(She's gonna freak)
Because I know I'd be freakin' too
'Cause that's the thing that girlfriends do It's so frustrating
You're not the type that I should be dating
No matter where I go or what I do
It sucks, 'cause I wanna be with you, you, you, you It's so frustrating
You're not the type that I should be dating
No matter where I go or what I do
It sucks, 'cause I wanna be with you It's so frustrating
You're not the type that I should be dating
No matter where I go or what I do
It sucks, 'cause I want to be with you, you, you, you, you, you, you
