Broken People

Tavani

He did not come to start religion
Or be accepted by the crowd
He did not come to build a kingdom
To fill it with the rich and proud
He did not come for the righteous nor for the strong, nor for the wise
He did not come to live in splendor and to ignore the wounded cries

He came for all the broken people with their lives torn apart by pain
He came for hopeless situations
If you're in one, you're why He came

He did not come for unknown reasons
That He keeps hid in mystery
He did not come 'cause it was pleasing
He knew there would be a Calvary
Pity was not His motivation
For why He reaches out for you
You are the crown of His creation
He has undying love for you

He came for all the broken people
with their lives torn apart by pain
He came for hopeless situations
If you're in one, you're why He came
If you're in one, you're why He came
If you're in one you're why He came
