

Ninja of Love

Freezpop

I didn't see him coming under cover of the night I didn't know what hit me he did everything so right quiet as a whisper he's a shadow dressed in black he crept up right behind me with his secret love attack

he's the ninja of love
he snuck into my heart
my defenses were down
I was doomed from the start
he's the one you can't see he's the one in control through the dark he found me he's got special powers caught completely off my guard I wanted to resist him but he's making it so hard a glance in my direction all he needs to see thru me I cannot understand it he remains a mystery

my defenses were down
