

The Whole World Lookin' At Me

Busta Rhymes

The whole world lookin' at me
Watching and waiting to see
If I fulfill my destiny
The whole world lookin' at me
Watching and waiting to see
If I fulfill my destiny
The whole world lookin' at me
Watching and waiting to see
If I fulfill my destiny

The whole world lookin' at me Uh, my interruption cause a major concussion
Dome piece swollen son you need a cup of Bufferin
Peep my post reduction, hey, follow my instruction
Bounce back my repercussion, cause mass destruction
Fuck around strain ya til ya plan malfunction
Sit cha ass down, hey, bouncin' out ta flushin'
Check extra P by the boom weed from a Russian
I remember when I used to rhyme for next to nothin'
I got so much ta offer every time I tell you somethin'
I'mma bout ta drop it, you could never stop it
Let me quickly chop it
Still, a lot of niggas idolize the false prophet
The rhyming Lou Gossett
Hold your head and shoulders yo I roll with evil holders
Dealin with the facts, I hold the science in the folders
The jewel on how to knock you from concussion into comas
Test shit, I pull your valve from out your breast kid
Mess with shit like this, after God blessed it The whole world lookin' at me
Watching and waiting to see
If I fulfill my destiny
The whole world lookin' at me
Watching and waiting to see
If I fulfill my destiny

The whole world lookin' at me Uh, I'm bout to cause chaos steady bustin' ya bra's
Witch to witch craft, my chemistry with your seance
Fuck the bullshit, livin' in the zone of my renaissance
My squad stay formin like the Muslims down at the Mosque
Split ya fuckin' frame like we raisin splittin' cigars
I be workin' wonders, my squad formin' numbers
Christopher Columbus, discover how yo' speed

Got swell up like you cucumbers
My name be rollin' thunders
My degrees multiply the heat more this summer
My flows got so much rhythm, substitute the drummer
Yo fuck that, focusin' about the front runner
Who you think you is, you better stay protected
Walkin' out the door, makin' sure you rock the double breasted Fuckin' with them devils, watch your soul get recollected
Mutherfucken shame when you die disrespected
Every bitch nigga in the world should be arrested
Beat with many strikes until their train of thought is redirected
The wrong has been corrected, God has been elected
The squad has come to rule us with the jewels manifested
Extreme my thought process on every record
Blow the spots to pieces bounce, without a clue right through the exit
