Shadow

Stick Figure

oh there she goes, walking the same old country road oh there she goes, I said you think but you don't knowthis may be the best day of your life said those are the words and the words that I live by and everybody's talking, but they got nothing to say there's a time, there's reason and purpose and a place I don't know how to say this, but girl you got me thinking your down upon your knees, like quicksand your sinking spilling your heart, you cannot fill up I said i thought this was the last time, you said you'd had enough
oh there she goes, walking the same old country road oh there she goes, I said you think but you don't knowlords knows I got everything I need I got soul, I got rhythm, got a dog I got my guitar take a deep breath, and feel the air you're breathing, it gives life it's rhythm and it comes from the trees and I can't stop the time, lords knows you can't either time it is your friend, time it is the healer forward always, keep the wheels in motion maybe that's why I like living by the ocean{} when you got nothing you got nothing to lose when you got something, there's something to choose one cup empty and the other is full never let nobody get the best of you lord you must forgive me if I go insane life it keeps you guessing and some people change our love, it never dies it remains the same I wish I could say it but I can't say
