

Down In The Past

Mando Diao

Well I don't wanna hang around with you
I've got my motor baby and I'm gonna see you through
Do you think I wanna be alone with you
It doesn't matter baby 'cause you're overreacted too
But since you're down there, where will I just be
I'm getting fine girl, dressing up for stormy weather
So, touch me down in the past where my mother will last
And it's true that I'm in for a punch and a blast
Yeah down in the past where my mother will last
And she will make sure that you remember yeah
Well I don't wanna slide away with you
I've got ten little soldiers pointing at you
Honey you just left me for a new one
It doesn't matter baby 'cause your hair is ugly too
But since you're down there, where will I just be
I'm getting fine girl, dressing up for stormy weather
So, touch me down in the past where my mother will last
And it's true that I'm in for a punch and a blast
Yeah down in the past where my mother will last
And she will make sure that you remember
Well I don't wanna hang around with you
I've got my motor baby and I'm gonna see you through
You think I wanna be alone with you
It doesn't matter baby because you're overreacted too
So, touch me down in the past where my mother will last
And it's true that I'm in for a punch and a blast
Yeah down in the past where my mother will last
And she will make sure that you remember yeah yeah
That you remember, that you remember
Now come on, come on, come on
Come on, come on
