

Super Country Cowboy

Rockie Lynne

Our daddy liked George Jones
Haggard and Buck Owens
Momma liked The Eagles and The Beatles
And The Rolling Stones When I was just a little kid
I became a hybrid
Super country, evangelic
Rockabilly, psychedelic cowboy There's a new branch on the family tree
And it all starts right here with me, yeah I'm a super country, evangelic
Rockabilly, psychedelic cowboy
I'm a 'Twist 'n Shout' and they keep breakin'
Puts the move on you right now, boy Get up outta your seat
There's a new branch on the family tree
And it all starts right here with me, yeah We never sang 'Hound Dog'
They said it was the devil's tongue
They censored him on Sullivan
Now he's loved by everyone Oh, there's an FM evolution
Country music revolution
LP, CD
Rip it from your MP3, boy Oh, there's a new branch on the family tree
And it all starts right here with me, yeah I'm a super country, evangelic
Rockabilly, psychedelic cowboy
I'm a 'Twist 'n Shout' and they keep breakin'
Puts the move on you right now, boy Get up outta your seat
There's a new branch on the family tree
And it all starts right here with me, yeah Oh, there's a new branch on the family tree
And it all starts right here with me, yeah I'm a super country, evangelic
Rockabilly, psychedelic cowboy
I'm a 'Twist 'n Shout' and they keep breakin'
Puts the move on you right now, boy Super country, evangelic
Rockabilly, psychedelic cowboy
Get up outta your seat
