Baring Teeth for Revolt

Goatwhore

We are coming to smash their idols
We are coming to wreck their laws
Break these binds, free our livesWe are coming to deaden their hope
We are coming to destroy their lie
Seize the moment, ready for the fightWhen the heavens are nothing, will you beg for remorse?
When the heavens are burning, will you tremble with fright?We are coming to taste their blood
We are coming defile their gods
Destroying this disease of faithWe are coming to rape their minds
We are coming to steal their souls
This revolt starting to unfoldWhen the heavens turn black... will you pray for the end?
When the heavens seep blood, will you cringe at our wrath?This will is long dead
This faith is long forgottenSlaying the pig of faith, abominations praised
Marked for death, this blade tastes blood
Cleave this plague of heaven from our hearts
We are of the moon, our dark side unknownAs the grassy fields burn
Fire gleams within my eyes
Dark is the way of this coming ageWe are coming to crush their rapture
We are coming to break their faith
Final act of this disasterWhen the heavens have failed... will you plead for your life??
When the heavens come falling, be prepared to die!!
