

This Beautiful Life

Colony House

What in the world are we doing here?
What is the meaning of it all?
To fall in love, to make a life that's calm and stable
Or just to find a place where I belong
What in the world am I looking for?
What is the peace that I can find?
This longing for, I can't ignore, but am I able
To see the good and taste it on my tongue
All that I know, all that I see
All that I feel inside of me
All that I've done, all that I've tried
There must be more to this beautiful life
Well, I go to the water to find innocence
Breathe deep the air to fill my lungs
And beauty sings her songs to me, every note I follow
To find out where the voice is coming from
All that I know, all that I see
All that I feel inside of me
All that I've done, all that I've tried
There must be more to this beautiful life
Oh, and I can't be satisfied
Oh, this well has long been dry
Oh, what does it cost
To find a home for what's been lost?
Well, maybe I'm part of something that's bigger than me
Like a page in a book in a library
And inside my heart there's a dying part that's always searching
'Cause I know that there's a place where I belong
All that I know, all that I see
All that I feel inside of me
All that I've done, all that I've tried
There must be more to this wonderful
Terrible, beautiful life
