

No Honor Among Thieves

Red Wire Black Wire

This world's a jungle there ain't no justice
Laws of nature rule this land
Better hide your horses, bury your whiskey
Hold your woman any way you can
'Cause there ain't no right or wrong, nothin's carved in stone
It ain't cheatin' if you don't get caught
Jokers laugh and losers grieve
'Cause out here there's no honor among thieves
That woman you've been lovin', she was another man's You stole her heart while his back was turned
On every corner there's an outlaw waitin'
Who wants to teach you what you never learned
'Cause there ain't no right or wrong, nothin's carved in stone
It ain't cheatin' if you don't get caught
Jokers laugh and losers grieve
'Cause out here there's no honor among thieves
This world's a jungle there ain't no justice
Laws of nature rule this land
So don't go cryin' when her love goes flyin' to
The thievin' arms of another man
There ain't no right or wrong, nothin's carved in stone
It ain't cheatin' if you don't get caught
Love's a deck of cards read them and weep
'Cause out here there's no honor among thieves
Yeah
There ain't no right or wrong
Nothin's carved in stone
