

Scarred Forever

Shaman

Scarred Forever
There's a chance for you and me
Far away from disbelief
When the prayers reach the sky
Comes a moment you will cry no more
Run, running away, falling apart
Thunder of fates colliding
Every day I see your face
Through my intimate disgrace
When it's cracking up inside
Comes a moment you will cry no more
Run, running away, falling apart
Beat of a heart now torn in two
Shadows are tamed out in the dark
Beauty is scarred forever
Doorways, empty nights
Are left behind
Always, the moment is right
You can't deny your fate
A hateful air disturbs the sky
It's time to say goodbye
Along the way, I'll wish you well
Turn off the lights, let us have
Our last goodbye in hell
