All

JJ Grey & Mofro

Two chiefs vie for the pleasure of gain
When their boy hits you right in the face they try to buy you off say its for the good of man dont even try to see if Ill play the same game
Ill give you all I got; Ill give you all you want
You wont want no more when I get through with you Dance, dance, dance for change and the same old same old
You dont realize that were in the same boat
Tell no truth but dont lie step on me to sit upon high
But you wont be living out those dreams
When youre trying to make me a slave
Ill give you all I got; Ill give you all you want
Ill give you all you want from me
All this worshipping, are you set to maintain?
Hell no I aint going down to my knees
Oh so smooth always in my ear
How the futures gonna save me in time
You slip between the raindrops dancing like a king
But I aint gonna let you stay dry
Ill give you all I got; Ill give you all you want
Ill give you all you want from me
Hell no I aint going down to my knees
