Disappearing

Super Deluxe

Silence, silence fills my dreams
with other
beautiful thingsflowers, flowers fill the fields of life
precious and real
but what for?
how can i need more?
more than i can take
thought there is no cure
my heart will break
but i need more
much more than dreams
yes i need more than beautiful thingssunlight, sunlight falls to night succumbs to darkness
silence, silence fills my dreams
with other beautiful thingsbut what for?
how can i need more?
than i can take
yes i need more much more than dreams yes i need more than beautiful thingsdisappearing.... disappearing.....but what for?
how can i need more?
than my heart can take
thought there is no cure
my heart will break
but i need more much more than dreams yes i need more than beautiful thingsooh's and ahh's.....and some yeah's too....
