#1 Da Woman

Tricky

She's so malicious as some delicious
Superstitious, super suspicious
Wonder woman, wonder woman
Wonder woman, wonder womanYou just rewind and you'll just be fine
You just be fine and you just be mine
You just rewind and you'll just be fine
You just be mine and you just be mineYou show me everything
And you feel me everywhere
And you pretend that you care
Do you care?I fit to fall through time
I knew you weren't mine
I shine light through the sky
One thing I try and tryCapture my world
I'll lose love's when I force the flew
Being will never be
Honey, remember meSo tuck your hair behind your ears
Your tears and your silly fears
I'll be your teddy bear
You choose the clothes I wearFor you I'll suffer much pain
Sharp glass, my brain
For you I lose, I lose my focus
You I swim, I swim in locustsYou show me everything
And you feel me everywhere
And you pretend that you care
Do you care?Every time I am you
I feel forever changed
Posing along the beat
Keeping the chemistryI way myself right down
Always I seldom found
I'm raging off so tight
Feeling low, feeling highYou show me everything
And you feel me everywhere
And you pretend that you care
Do you care?Here I remain, she don't know my name
Would she love me if I had no fame?
I feel bad pain, here come that rain
I don't complain, she's too complex
Tell me your name, is that your real sex?
