

Married

Jimmy Stare

They fought in bed.
Yeah well, she gives good head.
You know they're married.
Thats what they tell me anyways. And ah,
The honeymoon is over, now you just get to call him "Rover"
They're married What I've been hearing lately. yeah and The bitchy mother-in-law says he has a million flaws They're married oh
I've seen their picture in the paper yeah
And how many men I've know give up their life everything they've owned just to get a little bit on every payday, payday? yeah yeah
And how many women I've seen got the ring on their finger, and their perfume still lingers in my bed-jack yeah
Now I'm talking 'bout married ma ma mama married ma ma mama they were all married mama I can't hear a word you say turn off my hearing aid it don't matter, quit listening yesterday ah yeah i can't get it don't know what i was thinking about married mama mama don't talk to me. Just don't talk to me
