

Nothing Changes Around Here

The Thrills

Oh, nothing changes around here
Oh, nothing changes around here
Oh noOh, but I see you now
On the outskirts of town
But the fog gets so heavyBut if you're looking for comforting words, so long
Just don't tell me that you loved me all along
But if you're looking for famous last words, so long
Just don't tell me that you loved me all alongI saw your sister last night
And we danced, danced, danced
But that was allOh, but I see you now
On the outskirts of town
But the fog gets so heavyBut if you're looking for comforting words, so long
Just don't tell me that you loved me all alongAnd your face so full of gloom
So I booked ourselves a room
And took what every teenage boy in town wanted
And you chose meAnd then you disappeared from our lives
Sacred things were on your horizon
I demanded an explanation
You said that I was not your father
And you owed me noneOh, nothing changes around here
Oh, nothing changes around here
Anymore, anymore, anymoreBut if you're looking for comforting words, so long
Just don't tell me that you loved me, all along
But if you're looking for famous last words so long
Just don't tell me that you loved me all along
Don't, just don't tell me that you loved me all along

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>