

Myself for to Blame

Lia Rose

#VERSE

I planted the poison, and I set the trap
Have only myself for to blame
I need to know why if I'll never know how
Where, oh, where are you now?

#INSTRUMENTAL

#VERSE

You fooled all the ones if you say it loud
You don't know the who you can believe
Your own mind is clouded, though longs to be free
In the end, you're the one you've betrayed

#CHORUS

I'm not the one you should die for
I'm not the one you should kill for
I'm just the girl who'll follow you home
I'm giving you something to long for

Calliin' this living a life with the double-edge
I'm not afraid of the consequence
You wanna tell me 'bout consequence

I'm not the one you should kill for
I'm just the girl who'll follow you home
I'm giving you something to long for

When I'm gonna bury my stories been told
And you've lost who with to grow old
Promise you'll long for the package you've kept
And hidden away for so long!

I'm not the one you should kill for (ooh, ooh-ooh)
