

Run It

Fitz & The Tantrums

I been chasin' empty spaces
To hold a piece of you
But you ain't waitin'
Am I fadin'?
Is there nothing I can do? And, babe, if I change
Do you find faith
It's a blind shame in my room
So please come back, stay,
It's a black day
Since you've gone,
Chase after you
I said you run it, run it
Yeah you run it, run it
Yeah you run it, run it
There you go
I said you run it, run it
Oh, you run it, run it
No, I shouldn't have done it
Now I know, oh
I said you run it, run it
Yeah you run it, run it
Yeah you run it, run it
There you go
I said you run it, run it
Oh, you run it, run it
No, I shouldn't have done it
Now I know, oh
Tell me are you lonely when you
Find another piece of me?
'Cause I don't blame you
Tell me it's true
I'm still the one you need And babe if I change
Do you find faith?
It's a blind shame, I believe
So please don't not stay
It's a black day
Since you've gone
I'm on my knees I said you run it, run it
Yeah you run it, run it

Yeah you run it, run it
There you go
I said you run it, run it
Oh, you run it, run it
No, I shouldn't have done it
Now I know, oh There you go
Now I know I can't change all these bad days
It's a damn shame in my skin
And maybe someday, you'll forgive me
And you'll love me once again I said you run it, run it
Yeah you run it, run it
There you go
I said you run it, run it
No, I shouldn't have done it
Now I know, oh
I said you run it, run it
Yeah you run it, run it
Yeah you run it, run it
There you go
I said you run it, run it
No, I shouldn't have done it
Now I know
