

I'll Be Your Man

Passenger

give me one last dance while i still stand
give me one last chance to build my house upon the sand give me one last hope of holding water in my hands
and i'll be your man oh i'll be your man
oh i'll be your man
ohhh show me one shining star i'll show you the sky bring all your old scars and i'll kiss them goodbye will you show me where to start will you show me where to stand oh for one last time give me your heart and i'll be your man oh i'll be your man
ohhh cos i never compromised my whole life now i realise that its time to make a change or i'll end up feeling strange in the dying of my days when that old shallow grave is calling me oh i'll be your man
oh i'll be your man
ohhh
