

When It All Goes Down

Cross Canadian Ragweed

I'll proclaim you to the father
If you proclaim me to the people
My father said, "Church, it's in your heart, son"
You don't always need a steepleA preacher's truths aren't always shown
You follow a heart, make sure it's your own
One man's lifted into Heaven
One man's cast into HellFirst man's beliefs are the second man's prison
The second man's beliefs are the first man's jail
Yeah, to be or not to be
Born to decide what'll set you freeWhen it's said and done
Sit back and watch the show
When it all goes down
There ain't nobody knowsI got something on my mind that I can't ignore
I gotta tell you all the truth
The Devil comes rapping at my back door
Sometimes I don't know what to do
I see the light and it starts to fade
It blinds my eyes as I turn awayWhen it's said and done
Sit back and watch the show
'Cause when it all goes down
There ain't nobody knowsThe offer's on the table, the pen's in my hand
The Devil thinks she's got a deal
Temptation road may be paved in gold
But the gravel one is better, my friendWhen it's said and done
Sit back and watch the show
And when it all goes down
There ain't nobody knows
(There ain't nobody knows)

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>