

Fly One Time

Ben Harper

It had an ability
It's pounding at my door
Screaming for more
In a world that owes you nothing
You give everything, everything

And now I'm caught in between
But I can't leave behind
And what I may never find
So fly one time
Fly one time

Standing at the edge of your life
And the edge of my lies
Don't hold on
There's no fighting back the years
So hard to unlearn to fears

Now you're caught in between
What you can't leave behind
And all that you may never find
So fly
Just fly, just fly one time

I see you so clearly, so clearly,
I'm so high
I see you up so clearly, up so clearly
Up so high, so high

And now you're caught
In between
What you can't leave behind
And what you may, what we may never find

So fly, so fly, one time
So clearly, so clearly, so high
Fly one time
Just fly one time
If you fly one, one time
