Unreal

Drain S.T.H.

Hope is wearing thin as ice
When my feelings slowly die
Is there anyone there? Am I all alone?
Through the flesh to the bone
Thorn sticks deep inside meCan you feel me, I am wrong
Can you see me, I am goneI am rotting from inside
From the things I have denied
Feel the smell, feel the smell
From what once was me
I am trapped in myself buried in my bodyCan you feel me, I am wrong
Can you see me so long goneI am lost, I'm on my own
All my feelings turned to stone
To stoneFeel the smell, feel the smell
From what once was me
I am trapped in myself buried in my bodyCan you feel me, I am wrong
Can you see me so long goneI am lost, I'm on my own
All my feelings turned to stone
To stone, to stone, to stone
