Someday Soon

Firefall

Someday soon
We're gonna quit this crazy runaround
Pack our bags and steal awaySomeday soon
We're gonna find a place and settle down
I'll be coming home somedayI'll be there to kiss you in the morning
I'll be by your side each afternoon
Late at night, our love, like rivers pouring
Loving you someday soonSomeday soon
We're gonna leave this foolish fantasy
Find the strength to let it goSomeday soon
You're gonna see how much you mean to me
Even more than you could knowNow I can see, you can't hang on forever
Even though you love me like you do
Love is all that's keeping us together
I love you someday soonSomeday soon
We're gonna quit this crazy runaround
Pack our bags and steal awaySomeday soon
We're gonna find a place and settle down
I'll be coming home someday, someday soonSomeday soon
Someday soon
Someday soon
Someday soon
