

Kissing You Goodbye

The Used

Cut yourself in conversation
Cut a line to make me feel alive
'Cause you know I'm not alive And leave me with your complications
Take your life, you feel like taking mine
Meeting God, we stand in line, not alone Nowhere to go, I'm not leaving, not going
I'm not kissing you goodbye
On my own I'm nothing, just bleeding
I'm not kissing you goodbye Trust to take the right to leave me
Waiting under dark clouds for the rain
Praying lightning strikes a change As history gets lost
And as I took that final breathe I felt alive
Meeting God to stand in line, all alone Nowhere to go, I'm not leaving, not going
I'm not kissing you goodbye
On my own I'm nothing, just bleeding
I'm not kissing you goodbye Don't let me go, don't say goodbye
'Cause you know that I'm not alive
Don't let me go, don't say goodbye
Don't let this love die Don't let me go, don't say goodbye
'Cause you know that I'm not alive
Don't let me go, don't say goodbye
Don't let this love die Nowhere to go, I'm not leaving, not going
I'm not kissing you goodbye
On my own I'm nothing, just bleeding
I'm not kissing you goodbye
I'm not kissing you goodbye
I'm not kissing you goodbye
